

Collaborative Pianist

Job Description

Reports to: Interim Music Director

Directly Supervises: NA

Status: Part-time

Rate: $150/service, $75/rehearsal

Job Summary

The Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Columbia is looking for a collaborative rehearsal/worship pianist to support weekly services. The ideal candidate must demonstrate a personal commitment to Love, justice, and radical inclusion, and be eager to explore how music can deepen our spiritual journey together. The selected candidate will be well-versed in various musical genres including praise and worship, contemporary, jazz, and classical. The role will support our Interim Music Director in preparation of songs for weekly choir rehearsals, teaching vocal parts, and execution of weekly worship services. The right candidate may have an opportunity to collaborate with the minister to create soulful worship spaces. We also have an electric organ for those who have organ experience, as well.

Duties:

- Play for Thursday night choir rehearsals (This may be negotiable for the right candidate who is not available every Thursday.)
- Provide musical accompaniment during Sunday service.

Skills:

- Ability to play from traditional sheet music, charts, and some improvisation
- Excellent communication skills to effectively convey ideas and foster collaboration among team members.
- A passion for worship through music that aligns with our Shared values

Weekly Schedule (Approx.)

- Sunday : 9:00 am-11:30
- Thursday evening: 1.5 hours (weekly rehearsal)
- Pianist will have right of first refusal for opportunities to play for other events such as weddings and funerals at an agreed rate paid by the renters/hosts.

Services:

- Sunday Worship - 10:00 am (Three Sundays per month)

Requirements:

- Prior experience as rehearsal/audition accompanist or collaborative musician
- Ability to Commute to Owen Brown Village in Columbia

Internal Revision

This role will be evaluated annually and may evolve or be revised based on organizational needs and individual strengths.
